Join us for a compelling panel discussion featuring 5 participants of the Youth Ecopreneur Programme 2024 (YECO). These young ecopreneurs from around the globe will share their experiences of navigating the financial landscape and discuss the challenges and opportunities for securing funding for startups. YECO, a program by the G20 Global Land Initiative and the International Trade Center, empowers young ecopreneurs venturing into land-related businesses. Don't miss this opportunity to engage with thought leaders and enhance your understanding of financing for sustainable ventures!
